

BRIEF CV OF SHRI GOPAL KRISHNA

Mr. Gopal Krishna is a member of the Indian Administrative Service since 1983. He is a science graduate with a Master Degree in Physics, later completed a Master's Degree in Business Administration from University of Exeter, U.K. During his career of 35 years in service, he has held many important positions, both in his State of Bengal as well as in the Government of India with a strong strategic perspective of policy issues at the highest levels of government both nationally and internationally.

2. He has been deeply involved in public administration, resources management, Foreign Investment Policy, Promotion & International Cooperation, Industrial Investment Policy & Promotion and infrastructure development. He has had first-hand experience and successfully led departments with strong business and commercial focus, and formulating, financing & implementing mega, large and small infrastructure projects in the Government, PPP and Private domain.

3. Presently, Mr. Krishna is working as Secretary in the Ministry of Shipping, Government of India. His main responsibilities include formulation of policy, supporting legal framework and development relating to Ports, Shipbuilding, Inland Waterways and Maritime Transportation.

4. Mr. Krishna is a keen sportsman and was a National level swimmer winning prizes in the National Age Group Aquatic Championships and Delhi State Aquatic Championships. He represented the Delhi State team in various National Aquatic Championships, Delhi University team in Inter University and captained the Delhi State Water Polo Team in National Age Group Championship.